

SUBMIT YOUR ENTRIES FOR THE

GRAND SLAM CLUB  OVIS™

SUPER  SLAM®

2027 TROPHY AWARDS

HOW TO ENTER - DEADLINE NOVEMBER 1, 2026

1. Submit an official SCI score sheet for any species. The completion of a GSCO milestone (such as a Grand Slam or Super Ten) is NOT necessary to enter the 2027 GSCO Trophy Awards
 - B&C/P&Y score sheets are accepted on all trophies with the exception of moose, caribou and muskox
2. Submit a field trophy photo for each species submitted
3. Send to Grand Slam Club/Ovis
 - Mail to GSCO, P.O. Box 310727, Birmingham, AL 35231
 - Email to GSCO, at gsco@wildsheep.org

NOTE: The preferred method for entry of a trophy is that an official measurer of SCI, using official SCI measuring forms, be engaged to certify the trophy. However, in a case where the B&C/P&Y method is parallel to the SCI method, an official measurer from either of those organizations may be used, and we will use the gross score for entry. (Moose, caribou and muskox do not have a parallel scoring method therefore must be submitted only on an official SCI score sheet.) The trophy may have been taken by any lawful method, including: rifle, handgun, bow and arrow, muzzleloader, crossbow or shotgun. The trophy must have been taken within the last five calendar years (2022-2023-2024-2025-2026). No trophy may be entered which has won an award in a previous year's Trophy Awards.

EXCEPTION: Any trophy entered that qualifies for a Top 20 ranking in the current SCI online record book REQUIRES a 60-day drying period. This is also required by the SCI record book. If the above requirements have already been met and the trophy is entered in the SCI online record book, it will NOT be necessary to submit another score sheet, as the information is readily available for us to retrieve from the current SCI online record book. We will still accept official B&C and P&Y scores as long as the 60-day drying period is observed.

Once a trophy has met the above requirements, we simply need field photos (two preferred, from different angles). All should be submitted to: Grand Slam Club/Ovis, P.O. Box 310727, Birmingham, AL 35231 OR email: gsco@wildsheep.org
